Beverly City School District

Special Education Parent Advisory Group (SEPAG)

Statue Citation

N.J.A.C. 6A: 14-1.2 District eligibility for assistance under IDEA Part B item 18 (h)

Each district board of education shall ensure that a special education parent advisory group is established within the district to provide input on issues concerning students with disabilities.

What is SEPAG?

SEPAG is a volunteer group, and its effectiveness within the school is dependent on the participation of parents attending meetings, discussing special education topics, and learning about special education.

Who can become a SEPAG member?

Parents/guardians of students with disabilities and Individual Education Programs (IEPs).

Mission

The mission of the Beverly City School District SEPAG is to provide support and guidance for families of children with special needs.

The Beverly City School District SEPAG acts as a liaison on behalf of parents, providing information about the district's programs and serving as a resource to parents by communicating information about the special education process and our programs.

Beverly City School District SEPAG Goals and Objectives

- Foster a positive and respectful environment within the special education community through parent education and involvement
- Help students with disabilities succeed academically, socially, and emotionally
- Provide support for families by alerting them of resources available outside of the school
- Gather member comments/questions and foster communication with the Beverly City School District Special Education Department

Director of Pupil Services

What is the purpose of our SEPAG?

This is a parent forum to share ideas, bring attention to issues that affect our students with disabilities and ideas for solutions. Parents learn from other parents' topics and questions.

How do we achieve our goals?

Parent involvement, parent support, and parent input will make our SEPAG effective within the school district and benefit students with disabilities. If you would like to learn more about Beverly City School SEPAG please contact our Supervisor of Pupil Services: Christine Vinegra, cvinegra@beverlycityschool.org.
